

Name _____

Fill in the blank:

Aeneas	Romulus	Remus	Cincinnatus	Tribunes
Consuls	Magistrates	Hannibal	Gaius Marius	Legions

1. _____ A brilliant Carthaginian general who attacked Rome and began the 2nd Punic War.
2. _____ The legendary founder of Rome; he killed his twin.
3. _____ Groups of up 6,000+ soldiers, who were then put in groups of 100
4. _____ Two most powerful Magistrates in the Roman Republic.
5. _____ The legendary founder of Rome; he was killed by his twin.
6. _____ General, who in 107 BC, tried to solve unemployment by inviting the poor to join the army.
7. _____ Part of Roman's government that made up a group of elected officials who had the ability to veto which made them extremely powerful.
8. _____ Mythical Trojan hero who fled Troy and came to Italy.
9. _____ A famous dictator who chose not to retain his power.
10. _____ Officials elected to fulfill specific duties for the city for one term.

True or False:

11. T F: "Veto" means "to forbid" in Latin
12. T F: The Law of 10 Tables were displayed in the Forum for all to read.
13. T F: Italy's terrain is mostly flat with many rivers and lakes.
14. T F: Spartacus was a gladiator and former slave who led an uprising.
15. T F: The Roman Republic took excellent care of their poor.
16. T F: There were 7 legendary kings of Ancient Rome; the last three were Etruscans.
17. T F: The Alps run through the middle of Italy.
18. T F: The Patricians were the wealthy landowners who mostly controlled the government.
19. T F: There were four Punic Wars between 218 BC and 149 BC.
20. T F: Hannibal used elephants in the Punic Wars.

Answer with a complete sentence:

21. Who were the Etruscans?

22. What is a Tripartite Government and why is it effective?

23. How did written law keep order?

24. Who were the Plebeians?

25. What was the Forum?

Essay questions - answer two on your own paper with a paragraph:

26. Why and how did Roman territory grow?

27. How were plebeian's complaints addressed by Rome's patricians? Explain the changes that were made to the governing of Rome.

28. Summarize the legend of Romulus and Remus.