

Label each below as a clause or phrase:

_____ behind the car

_____ in a pond a little frog lives

_____ who is she

_____ by the tree

What is a sentence? What is a fragment? What is a run-on?

_____ - the bird flies quickly from the tree

_____ - my aunt with the big orange car

_____ - he goes to the carnival and he buys popcorn

What are the four types of sentences? _____, _____,

_____, _____

Label and add the end punctuation:

_____ Send that to me

_____ He is nice

_____ Do you want to read

_____ Oh No! Your book fell out

Capitalize (review the rules first)

Mr. jones went to florida in early wnter.

Alice and her dad left on april 18, 2017.

During easter vacation, beth visited aunt lydia and saw the easter parade in philadelphia.

His brother, steve, took french, algebra III, and economics at georgia college.

Punctuation (review the rules first)

His address is 4441 Old Forge Rd Gastonia N C

Bills aunt lives down the street and she is really mean

On May 8, 1985 Mrs Smith had a baby at 9 10 a m

Suzy asked May I go to Marys house tomorrow

We read the magazine Southern Living and liked the article Iced Tea in the Summer

The party is next week however I cant attend

Subjects and Verbs - underline the subject once and verb phrase twice:

I have bought a water gun from the woman.

Did she find a large frog?

After the football game, several fans cheered.

I am really happy you got a hamster.

Can you help your sister?

Contractions:

Can not - _____ does not - _____ I have _____

They are - _____ you will - _____ We have _____

Circle the correct verb: (cross out the prepositional phrases and think about it)

Jim and Bob (was were) in Kentucky.

Someone in the last few pews (have has) an ipad.

The kids with the adorable kitten (like likes) to knit.

Have you (spoke spoken) to your dad?

She should not have (did done) that.

Carlos has not ever (ridden rode) a camel.

I may have (ate eaten) too much.

Have you (drink drunk) hot tea?

The old man has (choose chosen) a used car.

Beth should have (taken took) a new route.

Have you ever (flew flown) a kite before?

Circle the abstract nouns:

table kindness grace wind

Make these nouns plural:

mess _____ tray _____

match _____ leaf _____

Deer _____ donkey _____

City _____ sheep _____

box _____ bridge _____

Make possessive:

A car used by more than one man- _____

A shop used by more than one farmer- _____

A bike belonging to more than one child - _____

A book belonging to Ted - _____

Circle any nouns:

Several large trees fell over in the storm last night.

Circle the right answer:

The river by my grandma's house is the (straighter straightest) I have seen in my life.

She is the (more friendly most friendlier) of the twins.

This shell feels the (smoother smoothest) of all on the beach.

He did (good well).

You don't feel (good well)

Becky hardly has (no any) candy.

You are speaking too (quiet quietly)

Of the two boys he runs the (farther farthest)

Bill loses (more often most often oftener) than his friend.

The dog walked (more lightly most lightly) on his front paw.

Ben played (worse worst) in his last tournament of the season.

Greg and (she her) donated books.

The cookies are for Mara and (I me).

(Them Those) lollipops are yummy.

One of the boys left (their his) hat.

Marsh and (they them) are beautiful.

The last one was (he him).

Our friends are (them they) by the fountain.

The teacher handed (she her) a paper.

The conversation was between Martin and (I me).

Please give (I me) your test.

